==========

CITY GENERAL HOSPITAL & OPD CLINIC

Dr. A. Sen, MBBS, MD (General Medicine) | Reg. No: WB-24901

Address: 45/2, Acharya Jagadish Chandra Bose Road, Kolkata

==========

Patient Name: Ramesh Verma Age/Sex: 38 / Male

Date: 12/10/2026 Weight: 72 kg

VITAL SIGNS:

- Temperature: 101.4°F (Intermittent)

- Blood Pressure: 122/82 mmHg

- Pulse Rate: 92 bpm

CHIEF COMPLAINTS:

1. Moderate frontal headache lasting for the past 5 days.

2. Low-grade fever with mild chills lasting for the past 3 days.

CLINICAL IMPRESSION / PROVISIONAL DIAGNOSIS:

- Acute febrile illness with tension-type headache (Rule out viral etiology / seasonal infection).

Rx (MEDICATIONS):

1. Tab. Paracetamol 650 mg

  - 1 tablet orally, SOS (maximum every 6 hours after food if temperature > 100°F or severe headache)

  - Duration: 3 days

2. Cap. Pantoprazole 40 mg

- 1 capsule orally, once daily (empty stomach in the morning)

- Duration: 5 days

3. ORS (Oral Rehydration Salts)

- 1 packet mixed in 1 liter of water, sip throughout the day

INVESTIGATIONS ADVISED:

- Complete Blood Count (CBC) with ESR

- Dengue NS1 Antigen & IgM/IgG

- Malaria Parasite (ICT)

ADVICE:

- Strict physical rest and adequate oral hydration (at least 3 liters/day).

- Monitor and maintain temperature chart.

- Review with lab reports after 48 hours or immediately if breathlessness or high persistent fever develops.

Signature: _____

Dr. A. Sen, MD

==========